

Hosted at:

La Quinta Inns and Suites

5120 Victory Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46203

For map and directions please visit:

www.laquintaindianapolissouth.com

For Hotel reservations call (317) 783-7751
and ask for Reptile Symposium Discount

To register for the Symposium please visit:

www.hoosierherpsoc.org/registration

For links and further HHS information please visit:

www.hoosierherpsoc.org

Questions? email us at info@hoosierherpsoc.org

Friday, October 17, 2014

- 7:00pm Andrew Hoffman (Indiana State University)
"Indiana's Changing Landscape and Our Native Venomous Snakes"
Jarrett Maneck (DNR Interpretive naturalist)
"Interpreting Indiana Snakes Alive"
Rupert Boneham (America's Favorite Survivor)
Meet/Greet and get photos and autographs signed

Saturday, October 18, 2014

- 8:00am - 8:10am Opening Remarks
- 8:00am – 5:00pm Book Vendor Sales / Live Indiana snakes exhibit (including venomous)
- 8:10am – 8:50am Andrew Hoffman (Indiana State University)
"Artificial Water Control and Amphibians: Do Moist Soil Units Provide Habitat for Salamanders?"
- 9:00am – 9:40am Jeff Holmes (Executive Director of the Amphibian and Reptile Conservancy)
"Introducing (PARC)Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation and (ARC) Amphibian and Reptile Conservancy."
- 10:00am – 10:40a Mike Pingleton (Field herpetologist, author, and herpetoculturist)
"Isla Santa Catalina and the Quiet Cascabel: Adventure and Evolution in the Sea of Cortez"
- 10:45am – 11:25am P.David Polly, PhD. (Indiana University)
"Ectotherms in a changing world: reptiles and climate in the present, past and future"
- 1:00pm – 1:40pm Jim and Kristen Harrison (Kentucky Reptile Zoo)
"Our Venomous Relationship; a couples adventures with venom and venomous reptiles"
- 1:45pm – 2:25pm Frank Paladino (Professor/Biologist, IUPU Fort Wayne)
"Reflections on 30 years of Marine turtle research"
- 2:45pm – 3:25pm Lee Casebere (DNR Division of Nature Preserves)
"Hemi Quest -- A Search for New Populations of Four-toed Salamander (Hemidactylum scutatum) in Indiana from 2003 to 2010"
- 3:30pm – 4:10pm Carl Franklin (Biological Curator and Collections Manager of the Amphibian and Reptile Diversity Research Center at the University of Texas Arlington)
"Custodian of Eden? Or a Preposterous Pipedream?"
- 6:30pm Dinner followed at 7:30pm by keynote speaker Christopher Jenkins (CEO, Orianna Society)
"How a Young Girl's Love of North America's Largest Serpent Created a Global Institute of Herpetology"
Auction follows the keynote address

Sunday, October 19, 2014

- 9:00am Indianapolis Zoo opens
Behind the scenes tour at 10:00 departs in the Desert building in front of the Meerkat exhibit
- 10:00am – 4:00pm Midwest Reptile Show (free of charge) at the Indiana State Fairgrounds